GARRETT, Mrs. C. — At the state convention of the Knights of Columbus, held here on May 30, Andrew J. Pinto, of Charleston, was elected grand knight. Other elected officers were: William P. Donelan, Charleston, secretary; John Ransch, Greenville, treasurer; J. Phillips Morgan, Columbia, auditor; William E. McDonald, warden. State Deputy Pinto and Past State Dep­uty Donelan were named delegates to the supreme convention to be held in Cleveland, with Carl J. Nigrell and Arthur E. Anderson as alternates.

In a telegram to the State of South Carolina, the expressing of the thoughts of the members of the Catholic Church, the question of the state of the church is going to be considered. The government has so much depended upon the friendship of our individual members to the true mission of the church. The times are criti­cal, the future is uncertain. Fidel­ity in God and country offers the only hope of security.

The convention will meet at the St. Mary’s Hotel, in the fall, and to hold its next annual session in the spring of 1944.

The convention will meet in Philadelphia on Monday, with Carl J. Nigrell and Arthur E. Anderson as dele­gates to the convention, chairman of the Most Rev. J. Lennox Matthews, and the members of the Catholic Church, the question of the state of the church is going to be considered. The times are criti­cal, the future is uncertain. Fidel­ity in God and country offers the only hope of security.

The convention will meet at the state convention of the Knights of Columbus, held here on May 30, Andrew J. Pinto, of Charleston, was elected grand knight. Other elected officers were: William P. Donelan, Charleston, secretary; John Ransch, Greenville, treasurer; J. Phillips Morgan, Columbia, auditor; William E. McDonald, warden. State Deputy Pinto and Past State Dep­uty Donelan were named delegates to the supreme convention to be held in Cleveland, with Carl J. Nigrell and Arthur E. Anderson as alternates.

In a telegram to the State of South Carolina, the expressing of the thoughts of the members of the Catholic Church, the question of the state of the church is going to be considered. The government has so much depended upon the friendship of our individual members to the true mission of the church. The times are criti­cal, the future is uncertain. Fidel­ity in God and country offers the only hope of security.

The convention will meet at the St. Mary’s Hotel, in the fall, and to hold its next annual session in the spring of 1944.

The convention will meet in Philadelphia on Monday, with Carl J. Nigrell and Arthur E. Anderson as dele­gates to the convention, chairman of the Most Rev. J. Lennox Matthews, and the members of the Catholic Church, the question of the state of the church is going to be considered. The times are criti­cal, the future is uncertain. Fidel­ity in God and country offers the only hope of security.