FATHER CARMINE BENANTI, S. J., IS
NEW PASTOR AT ST. JOSEPH'S, MACON
FATHER BRYANT GOES TO SHREVEPORT

MACON, Ga. — Father Carmine Benanti, S. J., who has been pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Macon, for the past six years, has been appointed pastor of St. Joseph's Church in Macon to succeed Father Robert T. Bryant, S. J., who becomes pastor of St. John Berchman Church, Shreveport, La.

In addition to his pastoral duties, Father Bryant will become pastor of the parish school, St. Joseph's, which includes a kindergarten, from grades one to nine. He will have charge of the parish missions and will assist in the organization of the Confirmation classes.

FATHER BENANTI
Members of St. Joseph's parish will extend a reception to Father Benanti, Father McCown and Father Dornier, on the afternoon of Sept. 9, at which time the new pastor and his assistants will be accorded a gracious welcome.

The Very Reverend W. A. Cran dall, S. J., provincial of the Society of Jesus in New Orleans, has announced the appointment of Father F. D. Sullivan, S. J., formerly pastor of the Sacred Heart Church, Alexandria, to succeed Father Bryant as pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Mobile.

Previously he had been stationed at Xavier High School in New Orleans, at the Christian Mission in Texas, and had taught at the Jesuit College of Notre Dame, South Bend, Indiana. He will arrive at Mobile Oct. 1.

FATHER McCOWN
Brother Bannin, a native of Brooklyn, comes to Macon from Brooklyn.

Brother Bannin on the afternoon of Aug. 7, it has been estimated.

Delegates from some 600 Newman clubs, representing Catholic students in secular universities and colleges of the country, will be among the topics for panel discussions which form a sinking fund for the Diocesan NewmanRite in St. Thomas Aquinas Mary's Greek Catholic Church, Savannah, and the Lyons Building on Brough Street in Savannah, this having been active in exemplifying the principles of Catholicity, their Faith, and the Church's work in harmony and carry out the mission of the Knights of Columbus.

The thought on the part of the Knights of Columbus, who had that there were those Catholics, who had gladly turned over to the Newman Clubs, and traditionalist-philosopher of the University of Notre Dame, will address the Council, in Bruns ton Street in 1909. Later, Savannah and the Lyons Building on Brough Street in Savannah, this having and the original officers of Savannah Council's activities is being conducted by the Sisters of Mercy here, was held in the office of Bishop O'Hara.

The report of Mr. Gleason as treasurer, to which fund the given.Farewell Party
By K. of C. in Augusta

Augusta, Ga.—Patrick Walsh Council, Knights of Columbus, celebrated at the K. of C. Home on August 2 with a "Shipwreck Party," in honor of Captains and Mrs. James Leonard.

As a result of the dancing was enjoyed. All members of the council and their friends, as well as other friends of Captain Leonard were there to show their appreciation of the old-fashioned hospitality of the captain.

Arrangements for the party were made by Major W. A. Ackers.

FEMALE ORPHAN BENEFACTRESS
SAVANNAH, Ga. — The annual meeting of the Female Orphan Benevolent Society, Inc., under the presidency of Mrs. John R. Wallace, was held in the office of Bishop O'Hara in Savannah. The meeting was conducted by the Sisters of Mercy here, was held in the office of Bishop O'Hara.

In the absence of the Most Reverend Francis G. D'Arcy, Bishop of Savannah, the meeting was called to order by Mrs. John R. Wallace, President and Treasurer, acting through Monsignor James Mc Namara, secretary of the society.

The following were attending, with Monsignor Stenge and Rev. Desider Simcoe, pastor of St. Mary's Greek Catholic Church, Trenton, N. J., Father Simcoe is married and the father of six children. The Savannah Rite is one of the nine rites in the Catholic Church, some of which have been extinct.

Another feature of the convention will be the offering of Divine High Mass according to the Rutenian Rite in St. Thomas Aquinas Church on September 3 by Rev. Deidder Simcoe, pastor of St. Mary's Greek Catholic Church, Trenton, N. J., Father Simcoe is married and the father of six children. The Savannah Rite is one of the nine rites in the Catholic Church, some of which have been extinct.

Capt. James Leonard
Given Farewell Party
By K. of C. in Augusta

Augusta, Ga.—Patrick Walsh Council, Knights of Columbus, celebrated at the K. of C. Home on August 2 with a "Shipwreck Party," in honor of Captains and Mrs. James Leonard.

As a result of the dancing was enjoyed. All members of the council and their friends, as well as other friends of Captain Leonard were there to show their appreciation of the old-fashioned hospitality of the captain.

Arrangements for the party were made by Major W. A. Ackers.

FEMALE ORPHAN BENEFACTRESS
SAVANNAH, Ga. — The annual meeting of the Female Orphan Benevolent Society, Inc., under the presidency of Mrs. John R. Wallace, was held in the office of Bishop O'Hara in Savannah. The meeting was conducted by the Sisters of Mercy here, was held in the office of Bishop O'Hara.

In the absence of the Most Reverend Francis G. D'Arcy, Bishop of Savannah, the meeting was called to order by Mrs. John R. Wallace, President and Treasurer, acting through Monsignor James Mc Namara, secretary of the society.

The following were attending, with Monsignor Stenge and Rev. Desider Simcoe, pastor of St. Mary's Greek Catholic Church, Trenton, N. J., Father Simcoe is married and the father of six children. The Savannah Rite is one of the nine rites in the Catholic Church, some of which have been extinct.

Another feature of the convention will be the offering of Divine High Mass according to the Rutenian Rite in St. Thomas Aquinas Church on September 3 by Rev. Deidder Simcoe, pastor of St. Mary's Greek Catholic Church, Trenton, N. J., Father Simcoe is married and the father of six children. The Savannah Rite is one of the nine rites in the Catholic Church, some of which have been extinct.

Capt. James Leonard
Given Farewell Party
By K. of C. in Augusta

Augusta, Ga.—Patrick Walsh Council, Knights of Columbus, celebrated at the K. of C. Home on August 2 with a "Shipwreck Party," in honor of Captains and Mrs. James Leonard.

As a result of the dancing was enjoyed. All members of the council and their friends, as well as other friends of Captain Leonard were there to show their appreciation of the old-fashioned hospitality of the captain.

Arrangements for the party were made by Major W. A. Ackers.

FEMALE ORPHAN BENEFACTRESS
SAVANNAH, Ga. — The annual meeting of the Female Orphan Benevolent Society, Inc., under the presidency of Mrs. John R. Wallace, was held in the office of Bishop O'Hara in Savannah. The meeting was conducted by the Sisters of Mercy here, was held in the office of Bishop O'Hara.

In the absence of the Most Reverend Francis G. D'Arcy, Bishop of Savannah, the meeting was called to order by Mrs. John R. Wallace, President and Treasurer, acting through Monsignor James Mc Namara, secretary of the society.

The following were attending, with Monsignor Stenge and Rev. Desider Simcoe, pastor of St. Mary's Greek Catholic Church, Trenton, N. J., Father Simcoe is married and the father of six children. The Savannah Rite is one of the nine rites in the Catholic Church, some of which have been extinct.

Another feature of the convention will be the offering of Divine High Mass according to the Rutenian Rite in St. Thomas Aquinas Church on September 3 by Rev. Deidder Simcoe, pastor of St. Mary's Greek Catholic Church, Trenton, N. J., Father Simcoe is married and the father of six children. The Savannah Rite is one of the nine rites in the Catholic Church, some of which have been extinct.

Capt. James Leonard
Given Farewell Party
By K. of C. in Augusta

Augusta, Ga.—Patrick Walsh Council, Knights of Columbus, celebrated at the K. of C. Home on August 2 with a "Shipwreck Party," in honor of Captains and Mrs. James Leonard.

As a result of the dancing was enjoyed. All members of the council and their friends, as well as other friends of Captain Leonard were there to show their appreciation of the old-fashioned hospitality of the captain.

Arrangements for the party were made by Major W. A. Ackers.

FEMALE ORPHAN BENEFACTRESS
SAVANNAH, Ga. — The annual meeting of the Female Orphan Benevolent Society, Inc., under the presidency of Mrs. John R. Wallace, was held in the office of Bishop O'Hara in Savannah. The meeting was conducted by the Sisters of Mercy here, was held in the office of Bishop O'Hara.

In the absence of the Most Reverend Francis G. D'Arcy, Bishop of Savannah, the meeting was called to order by Mrs. John R. Wallace, President and Treasurer, acting through Monsignor James Mc Namara, secretary of the society.

The following were attending, with Monsignor Stenge and Rev. Desider Simcoe, pastor of St. Mary's Greek Catholic Church, Trenton, N. J., Father Simcoe is married and the father of six children. The Savannah Rite is one of the nine rites in the Catholic Church, some of which have been extinct.

Another feature of the convention will be the offering of Divine High Mass according to the Rutenian Rite in St. Thomas Aquinas Church on September 3 by Rev. Deidder Simcoe, pastor of St. Mary's Greek Catholic Church, Trenton, N. J., Father Simcoe is married and the father of six children. The Savannah Rite is one of the nine rites in the Catholic Church, some of which have been extinct.

Capt. James Leonard
Given Farewell Party
By K. of C. in Augusta

Augusta, Ga.—Patrick Walsh Council, Knights of Columbus, celebrated at the K. of C. Home on August 2 with a "Shipwreck Party," in honor of Captains and Mrs. James Leonard.

As a result of the dancing was enjoyed. All members of the council and their friends, as well as other friends of Captain Leonard were there to show their appreciation of the old-fashioned hospitality of the captain.

Arrangements for the party were made by Major W. A. Ackers.