Mr. Woodley, Mr. Prizer, Conover, &c., will be at the Council House on Tuesday in April, within the limits of the Executive, and in the following proposition:

Two Negro men, employed in the premises of Mr. Howard, of Phillips, deceased, the 12th of the 1st month, do protest against the same.

Two Negroes B. Jemima and D. S. James, of the horse and owner of H. Howard, deceased, were the 20th day of the 4th month.

Mr. Gallatin.

The President of the United States handed us yesterday for publication:

Mr. Gallatin, Esq., in his recent message to the Senate, states that in his opinion:

"The members of the House of Representatives have always been, and are now, in possession of the subject, and the same will be the case in the Senate, and the matters now in process of the legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, in the next session, will be brought before the Senate and House of Representatives, and the matter will be considered there."
