Notes Public Schools News

Epping School News

Mr. Otis Graham and Mr. Herbert Clarke went to Mt. Vernon last week.

Messrs. Claude Phillips and Raymond Joyce attended conference at the State Teachers Convention in Savannah.

We regret very much to chronicle the death of Dr. Willard Cherry, an elderly lady in our community. Mrs. Joyce, Sr., stepmother of Miss Lucille Cherry, related last Friday afternoon of one o'clock from her home in Athens, and was buried in our beloved city. Dr. Cherry had been bedridden for eight months. The body was interred in Adams Cemetery.

Mr. W. O. Minton went over to Glennsford Saturday.

Mr. J. L. Shaw and son, J. E. Shaw, went to the south for the holidays.

Mrs. J. A. Clarke was called to Mt. Vernon. Mrs. E. F. Mouton, Sr., in Mt. Vernon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertha DuBose spent Sunday afternoon with Messrs. Lee Huggins andannie.

Mr. Moos visited Mr. and Mrs. James L. Huggins last week.

Mr. C. S. Palmer of this section was unable to secure a new stump puller for his farm. He is interested in seeing the old method. He went to Tifton the other day to see the large stump puller, but was unable to secure one.

Miss Allene Elliott attended the basketball game at Mt. Vernon last Saturday.

Mr. C. Phillips attended the basketball game at Tifton on the 27th.

Mr. J. M. Moody made a 50-point basket at Tifton.

Serious Cutting Afloat

in Wheeler County.

In an altercation between Jim Henry Perry and Frank Peas of the Landsburg section of Wheeler County, Sunday night Perry fractured the leg of his opponent. The cause of the disturbance is unknown, and Perry was seriously wounded in the face, stomach and breast.

Peavy was arrested Monday afternoon in Glennsford.

Four Square Club

The Four Square Club was en- tered this week by Misses Minnie and Helen Lee, Misses Elizabeth and Callie Hill. The guests were received with much pleasure and the meeting was conducted in a most delightful manner.

Boys was enjoyed throughout the week at the public schools. The inter- esting music class was secured, and the class is doing splendidly. The boys were serving by Mrs. Elizabeth Bar- rett, teacher of music.

Three were present at Mountaineers' rehearsal on Monday. Misses Mabel, Tyler, Cabb and Dickson.

Mrs. L. J., Miss Mary, Misses Marie Brown, Ione Pinkerton, Lillian Douglas, Theodosia Gob- ert, Katherine Carrie, Elizabeth S. L. and Lee and Elizabeth Barrett.

The following were present:

Mr. Otis Graham and Mr. Herbert Clarke went to Mt. Vernon.

Messrs. Claude Phillips and Raymond Joyce attended conference at the State Teachers Convention in Savannah.

We regret very much to chronicle the death of Dr. Willard Cherry, an elderly lady in our community. Mrs. Joyce, Sr., stepmother of Miss Lucille Cherry, related last Friday afternoon of one o'clock from her home in Athens, and was buried in our beloved city. Dr. Cherry had been bedridden for eight months. The body was interred in Adams Cemetery.

Mr. W. O. Minton went over to Glennsford Saturday.

Mr. J. L. Shaw and son, J. E. Shaw, went to the south for the holidays.

Mrs. J. A. Clarke was called to Mt. Vernon. Mrs. E. F. Mouton, Sr., in Mt. Vernon.

Mr. C. S. Palmer of this section was unable to secure a new stump puller for his farm. He is interested in seeing the old method. He went to Tifton the other day to see the large stump puller, but was unable to secure one.

Miss Allene Elliott attended the basketball game at Mt. Vernon last Saturday.

Mr. C. Phillips attended the basketball game at Tifton on the 27th.

Mr. J. M. Moody made a 50-point basket at Tifton.

Serious Cutting Afloat

of Wheeler County.

In an altercation between Jim Henry Perry and Frank Peas of the Landsburg section of Wheeler County, Sunday night Perry fractured the leg of his opponent. The cause of the disturbance is unknown, and Perry was seriously wounded in the face, stomach and breast.

Peavy was arrested Monday afternoon in Glennsford.

Four Square Club

The Four Square Club was en- tered this week by Misses Minnie and Helen Lee, Misses Elizabeth and Callie Hill. The guests were received with much pleasure and the meeting was conducted in a most delightful manner.

Boys was enjoyed throughout the week at the public schools. The inter- esting music class was secured, and the class is doing splendidly. The boys were serving by Mrs. Elizabeth Bar- rett, teacher of music.

Three were present at Mountaineers' rehearsal on Monday. Misses Mabel, Tyler, Cabb and Dickson.

Mrs. L. J., Miss Mary, Misses Marie Brown, Ione Pinkerton, Lillian Douglas, Theodosia Gob- ert, Katherine Carrie, Elizabeth S. L. and Lee and Elizabeth Barrett.