WASHINGTON, D. C.—Further bill being

Definitive Measures of the House.

The Wilson bill, for which the majority leader Alford, and the minority leader, Mr. Glee, have spoke, is to be considered in committee.

The Senate has passed a bill providing for the appointment of a commission to inquire into the causes of the depression of trade and industry.

The bill authorizes the commission to make a thorough investigation of the causes of the depression and to report to the Senate within three months.

The commission will consist of five members, three of whom shall be appointed by the Senate, and two by the House.

The bill also provides for the appointment of a second commission to inquire into the causes of the depression of agriculture.

The second commission will consist of five members, three of whom shall be appointed by the Senate, and two by the House.
