Zoning, from 1A

businessman planned the planning and zoning commission for a new subdivision.

Wendell Kingery asked the question of a landlord and owner of Courtyard
Boulevard. The Planning and Zoning Commission decided in favor of the limitation of the road.

If the commission decided in favor of the limitation of the road, $5000 bond.

Charles Marshall Rogers, 22, 1146 S.
Rogers Avenue, Warner Robins, April 27,
$5000 bond, $5000 bond, $5000 bond,
$5000 bond, $5000 bond. This way we can regulate the size of homes and reduce the need for a new commission. We feel we need to have more control.

(continued on page 26)

Card, from 1A

One of the most original is the card of the business. A little bag of salt attached.
Salt is an essential ingredient for everything that we eat.

The business owner has a card in his possession. She even has a post card of the parish where her patrons work.

Rates, from 1A

revenue. I believe in fiber optics but I can't imagine the idea of being in the entire system all at once. It should be done in a simply manner.

worked when she first moved into the Parish. She met a lot who were involved in the Parish for a while.

No matter where she got her ideas, the decision was made with mu-no. The commission decided to approve the subdivision for the new cemetery.

Harry Meyer, 112
First Presbyterian Church

Mason, Georgia 31206

Perry police blotter

Shoptlifting, forgery arrests made in Perry

(continued from previous page)

of the "incidents" portion of the following report are the complaints of rec-
in the report.

Arrests

Raymond Bernard Whitfield, 22, 1128
Villa W., Perry, Apt. P, $250 bond, $250
bond. This arrest occurred at the Theatre.

Teresa Davis, 31, 3128 S.
Eddie Perry Rd., Perry, April 27, $500 bond.

Sonia Skeete, 27, 1128 Villa W., Perry,
April 27, $500 bond. This arrest occurred at the Theatre.

Karen Lamar, 24, 1128 Villa W., Perry,
April 27, $500 bond. This arrest occurred at the Theatre.

(continued on page 27)

Arrests

Teresa Davis, 31, 3128 S.
Eddie Perry Rd., Perry, April 27, $500 bond.

Sonia Skeete, 27, 1128 Villa W., Perry,
April 27, $500 bond. This arrest occurred at the Theatre.

Karen Lamar, 24, 1128 Villa W., Perry,
April 27, $500 bond. This arrest occurred at the Theatre.

(continued on page 27)