HEROIC STATUE OF CAPTAIN JOHN SMITH

Jamestown visitor to Virginia in 1607, is the most monumental expression of the struggling Jamestown colony in Virginia. This is the only statue of the founder of the colony, who is said to have been inspired by a statue of Columbus. It will be placed on Jamestown Island in May.

LIE IS THUST AT ROOSEVELT

New York, April 26.—The information that Hiram Johnson, Secretary of War, has ordered a bucket shop consolidation, is a fact that the President has acted upon. The consolidation was ordered by the Secretary of War in the interest of efficiency and economy. The bucket shop is a device for the easy handling of large sums of money, and is used extensively by the United States Post Office Department.

Mrs. John B. Gordon Prominent Figure

President among those in the Memorial Day program was Mrs. John B. Gordon, who represented the Georgia women's branch of the National Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Gordon was born in the state of Georgia, and is the grandchild of Gen. J. B. Gordon, who was killed in battle.

I'M HERE TO STAND

The statue of the President is a replica of Lincolns statue in the United States Capitol. The statue is said to be worth $10,000.

MEMORIAL WEATHER

Wet, Rainy

After all the conditions were favorable for a good Memorial Day, it rained all day. The President was not able to address the crowd, but he was able to see the entire parade from the reviewing stand.

FOG PREVENTS GOOD FROM PLAYING TENNIS

Leading players were not able to play tennis on the Memorial Day. The fog prevented them from playing.
